

CAPT Moira G. McGuire

CAPT Moira G. McGuire is a nurse officer with the US Public Health Service and serves as Assistant Chief, General Internal Medicine and chief of Integrative Health & Wellness at Walter Reed National Military Medical Center, Bethesda. She has worked extensively with health disparities in behavioral health and oncology settings and most recently used her skills and experience to craft and enhance the care of our country's wounded, ill and injured service members as the Program Manager of Warrior Clinic. She is the daughter of an opera singer/voice teacher father and pianist/painter/playwright mother who studied Irish Dance, ballet, piano, violin, flute and harp.

She is the founder of the annual Healing Arts Exhibit at Walter Reed, now in its 12th year, which provides a showcase for those using the arts in their treatment and recovery experiences. She is a founding member of the Public Health Service Choral Ensemble, which she served as co-lead for 13 years, and a founding member of the National Initiative. The focus of her professional work lies in the belief that creativity and expression are not only essential elements in the treatment of illness and injury, but in the prevention of them as well.
